

Repeater for Panel of Push Buttons ARB-40

airpes®

General information

The ARB-40 model of Repeater for panel of push buttons, is a repeater of weight specially designed as a complement of the ALE-100 limiter, has been thought to be sited in the panels of push buttons by cable for the control of devices like cranes, overhead travelling cranes, hoists, elevators, etc.

Of easy connection by means of two wires without polarity, it allows the visualisation of the lifted weight, as well as the realisation of the accumulation of weighings in order to extract the total afterwards.

Characteristics

- Connection by means of two wires without polarity to wards whichever AIRPES device.
- Alfanumerical LCD display of 6 digits of 10 mm
- 3 keys to achieve the different functions
- Functions of Tare, Accumulation of weighings and Total
- Does not need external feeding
- Temperature: -10°C - 50°C; Humidity 15% - 85%